Dear Mr. Casey:

I am working on a biography of William F. Buckley Jr., which Simon and Schuster will publish. Mr. Buckley has granted me access to his papers at Yale, as well as having already agreed to approximately 20 hours of interviews.

I would like to interview you. I understand that your acquaintance with Mr. Buckley goes back to 1952 and that you incorporated National Review.

I would be glad to answer any questions you might have about me or my book.

Sincerely,

John Judis
